

PRESIDENT'S AWARD

2023 NOMINATION FORM

Eligibility Criteria

In each category the Award is for a young / early career professional (including students and trainees) who have demonstrated a strong understanding and contribution to the heritage sector through their education, experience and attitude. The nominee should demonstrate this via:

Understanding of the articles of the Australia ICOMOS Burra Charter in planning and delivery.

Contribution to the best practice conservation of a heritage place, precinct or item/s, including (but not limited to) projects concerning conservation of built heritage, cultural collections, cultural landscapes, intangible heritage values and terrestrial or maritime archaeological sites.

Enthusiasm and eagerness for their field demonstrated through attitude and endeavour as supported by their supervisor.

Volunteer experience or extra-curricular participation in the heritage sector.

Innovation is encouraged in the submitted work samples.

Nominees must demonstrate:

Appropriate qualifications or training in their chosen field.

No more than 8 years' experience in the heritage profession since completing their studies or training. Please note these awards are aimed at early career individuals and interpretation of the length of applicant's experience and eligibility is at the judges' discretion.

Nominations can be received from both members and non-members of Australia ICOMOS.
