Australia Icomos
Annual Conference
Old Parliament House, Canberra
18 - 19 November 2000

WORLD HERITAGE - LISTING, MANAGEMENT AND MONITORING

SATURDAY 18 NOVEMBER 2000: WORLD HERITAGE LISTING

Session 1: Opening

Ngunnawal Welcome: Ms Matilda House, on behalf of the Ngunnawal people
Australia ICOMOS Welcome: William Logan, President
Peter King, Chairman, Australian Heritage Commission

Session 2: World Heritage: An Evolving System

Chair: Barry Jones, Vice-President, Australia ICOMOS
Keynote Address: Henry Cleere, World Heritage Coordinator, ICOMOS: 'World Heritage: Evolving Universal Values'

Session 3: Tentative Lists and Emerging Issues

Chair: Joan Domicelj, Heritage Consultant
Sharon Sullivan, former Executive Director, Australian Heritage Commission: ‘The Emergence of Australia’s Tentative List’
Kevin Keeffe, Assistant Secretary, World Heritage Branch, Environment Australia: ‘The Australian Tentative List: Current Situation’
Mary O’Keeffe, President, and Kevin Jones, New Zealand ICOMOS: ‘Developing the New Zealand Tentative List’
Jane Lennon, Australian Heritage Commissioner: ‘Cultural Landscapes: conserving Cultural Heritage Values in Natural Areas’

ICOMOS General Assembly, Zimbabwe 2002: Presentation by Dawson Munjeri, Executive Director, The National Museums and Monuments, Harare, Zimbabwe; Vice-President ICOMOS

Session 4: Australia’s Tentative List: Existing and Potential Proposals

Chair: Hector Abrahams, Treasurer, Australia ICOMOS
Michael Pearson, Heritage Consultant – ‘Australia’s Convict Sites Serial Nomination’
Joan Domicelj, Heritage Consultant – ‘The Sydney Opera House Nomination’
Serge Domicelj, Emeritus Professor, Heritage Consultant – ‘The Blue Mountains’
Robyn Riddett, Heritage Consultant – ‘The Melbourne Exhibition Building’
David Jones, Secretary, Australia ICOMOS – ‘The Adelaide Town Plan’
Jane Lennon, Australian Heritage Commission – ‘The Victorian Goldfields’
Session 5: The Canberra Plan
Chair: Joy McCann, Executive Committee, Australia ICOMOS
Ken Taylor, Professor & Co-director, Cultural Heritage Research Centre, University of Canberra: ‘The Canberra Plan: a Candidate for World Heritage Listing?’

The Canberra Plan: Site Visit
Conference Dinner at the National Gallery of Australia
Master of Ceremonies: Peter Lovell, Allom Lovell & Associates; Executive Committee, Australia ICOMOS
Guest Speaker: Barry Jones, AO, FAA, FAHA, FTSE, Vice-President Australia ICOMOS

SUNDAY 19 NOVEMBER 2000: WORLD HERITAGE MANAGEMENT AND MONITORING

Session 6: World Heritage Management
Chair: Susan McDonald, Executive Committee, Australia ICOMOS
Keynote Address: Mounir Bouchenaki, Acting Assistant Director-General for Culture, UNESCO: ‘World Heritage Management: An Evolving System’

Session 7: Protecting Intangible Cultural Heritage Values - the Australian Approach
Chair: Ian Kelly, Executive Committee, Australia ICOMOS
Marilyn Truscott: Immediate Past President, Australia ICOMOS: ‘Intangible Values as Heritage in Australia’
David Young, Convenor, Australia ICOMOS Burra Charter Review Working Group – ‘The Burra Charter Revision and Intangible Values’

Session 8: Protecting Intangible Cultural Heritage Values – International Approaches
Chair: Jyoti Somerville, Executive Committee, Australia ICOMOS
Dawson Munjeri, Executive Director, National Museums and Monuments, Harare, Zimbabwe; Vice-President, ICOMOS: ‘The African Approach to Managing Intangible Values in World Heritage Sites’
Mary O’Keeffe, President, NZ ICOMOS: ‘Managing Intangible Values under the Aotearoa Charter’
Session 9: Kakadu World Heritage Area: Multiple Perspectives on Protecting Values and Attributes

Chair: Isabel McBryde, Emeritus Professor and Heritage Consultant
Peter Cochrane, Director of National Parks and Wildlife, Department of the Environment and Heritage: ‘Park Management Perspectives’
Jacqui Katona, Representative of the Mirrar Traditional Owners: ‘The Mirrar Perspective’
Don Henry, Australian Conservation Foundation: ‘The Australian Conservation Foundation Perspective’
Henry Cleere, World Heritage Coordinator, ICOMOS Secretariat, Paris: ‘The View from Paris’

Session 10: Monitoring World Heritage: Round Table Discussion

Chair: Barry Jones, Vice-President, Australia ICOMOS
Mounir Bouchenaki, Acting ADG for Culture, UNESCO
Henry Cleere, World Heritage Coordinator, ICOMOS Secretariat, Paris
Dawson Munjeri, Executive Director, The National Museums and Monuments, Harare, Zimbabwe; Vice-President, ICOMOS
Mary O’Keeffe, President, New Zealand ICOMOS
Kevin Keeffe, Assistant Secretary, World Heritage Branch, Environment Australia
Don Henry, Australian Conservation Foundation
Joan Domicelj, Heritage Consultant
William Logan, President, Australia ICOMOS

Close of Conference
Sheridan Burke, Executive Committee, Australia ICOMOS, Vice-President, ICOMOS