Students from Deakin Cultural Heritage and Museum Studies in partnership with the National Trust (NTAV) are hosting a one day symposium on 27th May 2015 at the Deakin City Centre at 550 Bourke Street. The symposium gives students and recent graduates a forum to discuss the future of the heritage and museum sector. If you are interested in attending and for further information please visit https://blogs.deakin.edu.au/heritage/conflict-and-compassion-symposium/

While the day is aimed at predominantly at students the organisers of the Conflict and Compassion Symposium would like to invite members of Australia ICOMOS to attend a social evening to conclude the day’s presentations and discussions. It will be held in ‘The Atrium’ of the Royal Melbourne Hotel with the support of the National Trust. The RMH is located just a short walk from the Deakin Melbourne City Centre. Please RSVP to this event by contacting caitlin.oshannon@gmail.com with details of who is attending by May 25th.

Date: 27th of May, 2015

Time: 5:30pm onwards

Location:

‘The Atrium’

Royal Melbourne Hotel

629 Bourke Street, Melbourne