Contents

Introduction
Sheridan Burke and Alan Croker

Welcome to country
Allan Maddren

What are words worth?
Sarah Macdonald

Interpretation and stories
John Pastorelli

Interpretation through art: site/memory – veiling space
Janet Laurence

Heritage interpretation is for people: putting visitors at the centre of interpretation planning
Linda Young

Interpreting through events
Camilla McRae

Whose Stories? Reconciling differences in historic interpretation
Mary O'Keefe and Kevin L. Jones

Archaeology: stories and contemporary social context
Richard Mackay

It's all in the telling: interpreting archaeological remains
Natalie Vinton

Connecting up the dots: heritage, identity, interpretation and cultural planning at Wollongong and the Illawarra Escarpment
Sally Gray

Respecting the layers: Newington Armaments Depot and the Olympic Village
Rod Simpson

Filling in the blanks: the role of new work in interpretation
Alan Croker

Sustainability, big pictures and other reflections on Australian heritage interpretation
Kylie Winkworth

Blacksmith Shop Interpretation
– Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery, Launceston
Veronica Macn

Continued over page
Interpretation guidelines and charters, why and how?
Sheridan Burke

ICOMOS and the Ename charter

The role of history in interpretation
Shirley Fitzgerald

Telling tales: changing light globes
James Broadbent

Book Reviews

Linda Young, Sue Olsson, Marilyn Truscott, Louise Zarmati, Sharon Sullivan, Lisa Randall, Juliet Ramsay, Lizzie Anya-Petrivna, Lisanne Gibson and Joanna Besley

Notes on Contributors