CONTENTS

Editorial
Robyn Riddett
Page 3

Keynote Address
Wendy McCarthy
Page 5

Being There: Space, Place and the Re-Positioning of Three Monuments in Queensland.
John White
Page 7

Cemeteries: Their Significance and Conservation
Celestina Sagazio
Page 13

Remembrance Driveway: A Living Memorial
Allan Correy
Page 19

The Establishment of Significance and Conservation Policies for the Australian War Memorial Grahame Crocke
Page 26

Victoria's Watering Places: A Survey of Drinking Fountains and Animal Troughs
Robert Green
Page 31

Conserving Monuments In Australia: Commonwealth
Policies And Programs
Alex Marsden
Page 37

Queensland War Memorials: A Slide Presentation
Shirley And Trevor Mcivor
Page 38

Avoiding Monumental Disasters with Stone
Helen Lardner
Page 41

From Landscapes to Stonemasons
Charmaine Clark
Page 44

Cover photo: The new Pimpama Ormeau war memorial, Uniting Church Cemetery, Pacific Highway installed in 1995. The inscriptions read: When you go home, Tell them of us and say, For your tomorrow We gave our to-day (visible); They have borne their cross, They have gained their crowns, Though they lie in far off graves. And we think of their lives a duty done, Manly unselfish, and brave ( opposite side). (Shirley & Trevor McIvor)