Conflict and Compassion

Contents

2 Editorial: emerging professionals and the heritage of ‘conflict and compassion’
   PAULETTE WALLACE

14 Contributors

18 Mentoring
   JANE LENNON

22 ‘Why not call ourselves mutilated Melbourne?’
   A history of urban heritage at the Rialto Towers
   JAMES P. LESH

36 Mediating queer controversy in Australian museum exhibitions
   VU TUAN NGUYEN

50 Reclaiming Indigenous heritage: developing affective dialogue through cross-cultural media collaboration in the moving image museum
   SIAN MITCHELL

62 Managing Coomalie: a living history
   FIONA SHANAHAN

74 Traces of memory: Australian-Japanese reconciliation in a post-war Cowra landscape
   ALISON STARR

86 Rebordering Berlin: transforming urban space and negotiating history in the former Borderland
   MIRJANA RISTIC

98 The Sunbury Rings and conserving landscapes in the context of urban growth
   MICHELLE BASHTA

Cover photo: © Last operational flight of World War II from Australia, returning to Coomalie when peace was declared (1945).
Photograph courtesy of: No. 87 Squadron photographers, 1945.
Supplied by the Mosquito Aircraft Association of Australia.