NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

GRAEME BUTLER is an architectural historian with a particular interest in twentieth-century architecture. He is the author of the recently published municipal history 'Buln Buln' and a number of area-conservation studies.

DR MILES LEWIS is a senior lecturer in architectural history at Melbourne University, he is the author of 'Victoria Primitive' and 'Don John of Balaclava' and many papers on the history of architecture and building method.

PETER LOVELL is a consultant in the building and technological aspects of conservation and possesses a deal of experience in paint colour sampling.

RAY TONKIN is an architectural research officer with the Victorian Historic Buildings Preservation Council and has specialised in twentieth-century architectural history.

HELEN WESTON is an urban planner with experience in conservation planning and architectural history.

ANGUS McIVOR has a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Melbourne and has been active in the Corangamite branch of the National Trust of Australia.